

Kennard Christian and Friends Churches Invoke 'Memories of a Merry Christmas'

Cantata choir members (l-r) Phyllis McFarland, Norma Beavers, Shirley Shepherd and Melinda Brown sing "While Shepherds Watch Their Flocks" during the Memories of a Merry Christmas program Sunday.

Over 40 people showed up at Kennard Christian Church Sunday evening for a cantata choir performance and soup supper put on by the Christian and Friends churches in Kennard. The event featured singing, storytelling and a soup supper after the performance.

Longtime Kennard Christian Church organist and pianist Eula Kay Wilson (right) accompanies the choir on "Go, Tell It on the Mountain." Each year, Wilson directs the cantata choir's Christmas performance, among other musical endeavors undertaken by Kennard Christian Church and joint performances by all three Kennard churches.

Longtime Kennard Christian Church pianist Eula Kay Wilson performs.

Choir members from both Kennard Christian and Friends churches include (front, l-r) Eula Kay Wilson, Norma Beavers, Mary Cole, Donna Shaw, Glenna Womack, Virginia Ellis, (back) Melinda Brown, Glen Starbuck, Shirley Shepherd, Jake Brown, Ron Womack and Phyllis McFarland.

"Grandmother" Janet Fields tells of Christmases past.

During the post-performance soup supper, Olivia Timmons, Ryan Johnson, Phyllis McFarland and Kelsey Crim sang "Happy Birthday" to Jesus. Not pictured is singer Rylee Johnson.

Choir member Ron Womack presents Eula Kay Wilson with a birthday gift and an appreciation gift for her years of directing a variety of church music programs.