

Cold Day... Warm Thanks

Plummeting Temperatures Not Enough to Halt Annual Legion Veterans Day Ceremonies

Knightstown American Legion Post 152 Service Officer Elmer Huse welcomes veterans and spectators to the Legion's annual Veterans Day program on the Public Square Saturday. (Eric Cox photo)

Knightstown Legionaire Bill Barker (left) enjoys the ceremony, while Nancy Huse (right) sings "American Tears." (Eric Cox photos)

Colonel John Riley of Carthage enjoys the event.

A Vietnam War veteran displays his service information on his jacket.

The Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Children's Home JROTC Color Guard prepares to present the colors Saturday at the beginning of Knightstown American Legion Post 152's Veterans Day program. (Eric Cox photo)

Knightstown Intermediate School fifth graders sing during Saturday's Veterans Day program on the Public Square. Chorus members were joined by the intermediate school band later in the program. (Eric Cox photo)

Members of the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Children's Home JROTC Color Guard stand at attention as they presented the colors at the start of Saturday's Veterans Day program. (Eric Cox photo)